Credit applicant has a right to a statement of the specific reasons if an adverse action has been taken. To request this information, contact us within sixty (60) days from the day you are notified of such decision. We will send you a statement of the reasons for the denial within thirty (30) days of receiving your request. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with the law is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.
